When you visit us...

June 14, 2020

You can expect to find your friendly neighbor, assembled to worship God the Father, and proclaim the love and grace He has given to us; and remember Jesus, the Christ, our example—our Savior. We will strive always to provoke love and good deeds of one another.

As in the 1st Century New Testament Church, our worship to God is simple - without mankind’s rituals. You will find a wholesome respect for the Word of God as inspired by the Holy Spirit. We study only the Holy Scriptures—no human creeds will be used by us.

In addition to the worship of our Creator, we strive to fulfill our Savior’s stated plan for us by sharing His Gospel message with this community and throughout the world.

Sermons every Sunday will be based wholly upon the Word of God. They will be Christ - centered and Biblically based so we can develop a deepening relationship with God through our understanding and personal involvement with Him and His truth in our everyday life.

Church Worship Services Resume
Sundays – 11:00AM (for now)

CHAFFEE COUNTY HEALTH DEPARTMENT
Variance: May 21, 2020

Places of Worship Places of worship are encouraged to continue offering online, outdoor, or drive-up services as much as possible.

For activities within a facility, places of worship shall be allowed to increase the number of participants, if they choose, as outlined in the following guidelines:

- Limit the number of guests to no more than 30% seating occupancy, provided that there's at least 6 feet of distance between individuals or between groups of a single household.
- Guests shall not be permitted to wait in the lobby area or in lines outside the door. No mingling time before, during or after services.
- Mask shall be required by all guests, when at all possible.
- Post signs at entrances regarding face coverings, and post signs throughout the facility as needed to remind guests of social distancing and proper hygiene.
- Make reasonable accommodations for vulnerable populations who are still under the Stay at Home advisement. (e.g. online viewing, visits to their home). Discourage any such individual from traveling to and/or entering the facility.
- Do not allow anyone to attend any event/activity in person if they are experiencing symptoms of any illness.
- Implement one-way entry/exit and directional walkways as much as possible.
- Place markings on the floor to maintain at least a six-foot distance where a line may form.
- Spread people out to maintain a six-foot distance between individuals/groups of a single household.
- Implement touchless offering and communion options as much as possible (e.g. do not pass around the offering plate, make available individual offerings that can be picked up by individuals to limit touching, pre-packaged and/or carryout).
- Perform environmental cleaning and disinfection of bathrooms and high touch surfaces every 2 hours and maintain a cleaning log (after each service).
- No self-service refreshments.
- Provide handwashing and/or sanitizer.
- Monitor employees and volunteers for one of the following symptoms:
  - Cough, shortness of breath/difficulty breathing
  - Or two or more of the following symptoms: Fever, chills, repeated shaking with chills, muscle pain, headache, sore throat, new loss of taste or smellSymptomatic employees MUST be excluded from the workplace
- Employees and volunteers shall be required to wear a non-medical cloth face covering over the nose and mouth, individuals that cannot wear a mask shall not be permitted to work at this time.

Stop and Smell the Roses

Greg Kiel

"Stop and smell the roses" is an idiom that we often hear reminding us to slow down and relax. This has taken on a new meaning in recent weeks, with our new normal of social distancing and self-isolation, providing us with this very opportunity. Many of us have had to learn a new way of self-productivity from home through teleworking. Hopefully, we have taken advantage of this time over the last several weeks to learn to be more content, patient and kind. I know that I have a greater appreciation for the ability to go to work and to overlook minor obstacles, such as the traffic congestion that once seemed like a major nuisance. We have taken for granted the ease of life's comforts, such as being able to go grocery shopping and to sit down for a meal in a favorite restaurant. Mostly, we all have missed the direct interaction with Christians, in being able to be together for our worship assemblies as we normally would and even to exchange a handshake or a hug.

While this time of uncertainty continues, may we stop and reflect upon our own lives to see how we are using each day. May we use our time more wisely in prayer to God and studying the word of God. May we develop more empathy toward others; learning to place a greater value on the impact to our society of health care workers and first responders, teachers and educational professionals, public servants and essential support workers like truck drivers, grocers and custodians.

May we use our time wisely to enjoy more time for walks, bike rides and dinners with our immediate family. May we learn more creativity, try new skills and implement organizational abilities. May we aspire to be better stewards with the things that we have been blessed with, learning to live with less, organizing essential shopping trips and planning for meals at home. Lastly, may we learn to share in the enjoyment of the simple things of life; like the ability to still have fresh water to drink, clean air to breath and food available for our survival. May we notice the birds and other creatures of God going about their daily routines of nature. For the beautiful colors of nature around us at this time – the dogwoods, cherry blossoms and even the emerging flowers of spring.

This picture of a rose is from our family's backyard and the first bloom of spring. The rose bush is a descendant of my father's landscape garden that he preserved from his mother's home site. May we remember during all times in our lives to always be a blessing to our God, family and community through the beauty of our thoughts, words and actions!

*** Notice *****

We are so happy that we are able to join together again in our assembly of worship as God desires – Hebrews 10:25.

Our first desire and priority is to ensure that we are doing all we can to keep everyone safe and healthy.

As we resume our worship assembly, please be sure you are following the guidelines set out by the county. We will be asking people to ensure distancing from others, which means we will need to spread out around the auditorium (by families). We will also be handling our communion and offering differently.

We are happy to be back and we want to ensure that we do all we can to meet the expectations of our officials and more importantly provide for the safety of all our brethren.
